ORDER:

The Chief Secretary to Government reviewed the progress on implementation of various provisions of A.P. Reorganisation Act, 2014 on 14.05.2018.

2. While reviewing on implementation of provisions under Schedule-XIII of A.P. Reorganisation Act, it has been noticed that number of issues are being referred to the Government by heads of the various institutions / projects such as provision of drinking water, laying of access roads, issue of statutory permissions and other coordination related issues etc. For sorting out these issues, it has been decided to appoint the respective District Collector, in whose jurisdiction the institution / project is coming up, as Nodal Officer to coordinate and issue directions / orders to the respective Departments for speedy clearance of the pending proposals. In case any budget is to be provided for any of the proposals, the District Collector shall address a D.O Letter to the Head of the Department concerned and also take up the issue with the Finance Department for early sanction of the proposal.

3. The District Collectors shall conduct at least one review meeting once in a month with the Departments concerned as well as the Head of the Institutions that is being established in the District and send a copy of the minutes to the mail address: secfinwp@gmail.com of G.A. (SR) Department.

(contd…2)

4. The District Collector shall furnish a detailed progress report on each of the Institution / Project mentioned in Schedule-XIII of the A.P. Reorganization Act by 15th of every month to the G.A. (SR) Department.

5. These instructions shall be followed scrupulously.
